The LEGACY REAL ESTATE & ASSOCIATES Fremont office's 2009 Performance Awards were announced at the April breakfast meeting. The attendance at the meeting was great as everyone wanted to honor the award winners. Company President, Bill Aboumrad, presented the awards and was pleased to announce company production exceeded our 2008 levels showing LEGACY'S commitment of top producing agents who truly know the communities LEGACY services in the San Francisco Bay area.

The Distinguished Service Award went to MICHAEL GODFREY for his outstanding service to the company, the community and the Bay East Association of Realtors.

The Top Producer Award went to SHERRI STONEBERGER in a repeat of last year's performance. Sherry's dollar volume was the highest of all agents in the Fremont office of LEGACY.

The Award for Top Transactions went to MICHELE TAYLOR. Michele closed the most transactions during 2009. Michele is shown here in the center with Jackie Pena who assisted her throughout the year.

The Rising Star Award went to LINDA YOUNG. While new to LEGACY, Linda is an experienced agent and always does her very best for each of her buyers and sellers.

One of the most coveted awards among agents new to real estate is the Rookie of the Year Award. This year there was a tie for the award between SHERRY LIU and NANCY CHING. Both ladies demonstrated a willingness to work hard for their buyers and sellers – watch for them in years to come.

The Vanlandingham Lifetime Achievement Award is a new award that was added this year to honor LEGACY'S late broker Carol Vanlaningham. The first recipient of the award was NANCY GUTTERY.
